

Quality Policy

SEC SYSTEMS Sp. z o.o. is the company which operates on marine market in various sectors. The company was called to demand and cover the highest standards of design, manufacture and services for marine market with special focus on Ship Owners.

In our activity, based on a management system compliant with ISO 9001:2015, we focus on:

- always meet the Customer requirements in comprehensive approach
- global standards and competitive level of services provided as per company profile
- always be neutral or positive to natural environment
- continuous growth and development
- project to be lead always in satisfactory manner for Customers and Company employees
- permanent improvement of company and services provided
- ensure compliance with legal and normative requirements regarding the product, in particular meeting the requirements of the MED directive in the field of marine equipment products;
- improve the management system by eliminating identified nonconformity and risks and implementing opportunities.

Management Board of SEC SYSTEMS

CEO
Krzysztof Brzóška