

Environmental Policy

FAMOS Marine Interior Systems Sp. z o.o. is the company which operates on marine market in various sectors. The company was called to demand and cover the highest standards of services provided for marine market with special focus on Ship Owners.

In response to environmental requirements we declare following:

- always prevent environment pollution or oil spill;
- always minimize negative impact on environment and society;
- always use reasonable energy and raw materials in way of sustainable development;
- always follow local, country and customer regulations and procedures;
- minimize the quantity of produced waste materials and carry the segregation.

Management Board of FAMOS Marine Interior Systems Sp. z o.o.

CEO

Krzysztof Brzóška